- African Identities and International Politics
By: Pierre Ango. Series: Routledge Contemporary Africa. New York, NY: Routledge, 2023. eBook. Description: Using the lenses of realism, liberalism, the English School and constructivism, this book explores how the divisions and differences in African identities affect African international politics. This book explores the African condition in the twenty-first century. It analyses how geographical, racial, ethnic, linguistic, religious and power differences shape continental and international relations in Africa through the creation of identities and values which initiate regional intra-continental or... By: Ashiro Isenaka, Yong-Cheol Ha, Edward Doyle. Series: Politics in Asia. Abingdon, Oxon: Routledge, 2023. eBook. Description: Geo-Politics in Northeast Asia focuses on the dynamics of Northeast Asia as a region. The chapters in this book offer a nuanced approach for understanding the geo-politics of this strategically critical area of the world. Focusing on China, Japan, Russia, and the Korean, as well as the involvement of the United States, the contributors to the volume offer a timely and critical analysis of Northeast Asia. - The Economics of Gender in China: Women, Work and the Glass Ceiling
By: Siu Sung. Series: Routledge Studies in Gender and Economics. Milton Park, Abingdon, Oxon: Routledge, 2023. eBook. Description: China's rapid socio-economic development has achieved remarkable equality conditions between men and women in the aspects of health, education and labor force participation, but the glass ceiling phenomenon has become more prominent. The book develops a cross-disciplinary paradigm, with economics at its core, to better understand gender in China and women in management in the Chinese business context. The theoretical perspective integrates the knowledge and evidence from cognate disciplinary strands... (AV 332710), Database: eBook Collection (EBSCOhost)

By: Rodney Edgerton. Series: Routledge Studies in the History of Economics. Abingdon, Oxon: Routledge, 2023. eBook. Description: An Economic Philosophy of Production, Work and Consumption presents a new transhistorical framework of defining production, work and consumption. It shows that they all share the common feature of intentional physical transformation of something external to the agent, at some point in time. The book opens with a discussion of various theoretical traditions within economics, spanning mainstream and heterodox perspectives, and problems with production definitions in use today. - Substantive Representation of Women in Asian Parliaments
By: Deen K. Jais, Christian Ehlers. Series: Politics in Asia. Abingdon, Oxon: Routledge, 2023. eBook. Description: Containing data from nearly 100 interviews with national parliamentarians from ten Asian countries, the contributors to this book analyse and evaluate the advancement of gender equality in Asia. As of the year 2022, no country in Asia has gender parity in its parliament. Meanwhile, the proportion of national-level women parliamentarians in Asia averages a mere 20%. What is more important than simple descriptive representation, however, is whether outcomes for women are improving. Rather than focusing... (AV 332193), Database: eBook Collection (EBSCOhost)
